The National Resources Commission Steel Works at Kuang-chou, after 2 months work, nears completion. This is the largest plant of its kind in South China. It will produce from 2,000 to 3,000 tons of steel each month, making use of Hainan ore. Most of the technical men came here from An-shan and Pen-ch'i. Most of the output will go to state-operated plants which are urgently in need of such material. The surplus will be sold to public.
